Preface

Police Staff College Bangladesh
Newsletter, 5th Issue
January-April 2013

I feel very happy to announce that Police Staff College Bangladesh Newsletter has stepped into the 2nd year of its publication.

Since the very beginning, Police Staff College Bangladesh aims to provide dynamic training to strengthen professionalism among senior police officials of Bangladesh Police and to conduct research for organizational development. Police Staff College Bangladesh Newsletter is being published periodically to familiarize you with its wide range of activities.

I am very glad to have so many beautiful comments from the officers for the improvement of the Newsletter. Some of you have taken pain to put forward your valuable suggestions to help it reach the international standard. We are working on them.

I hope the present issue would satisfy your demand.

Training for the Master Instructors of Community Policing

Mr. Md. Nazmul Haque PPM, Rector, Police Staff College Bangladesh, Mr. Md. Matiur Rahman Sheikh, Director Training, Police Staff College Bangladesh, Shanna Tova O'Reilly, Program Director, Asia Foundation, Directing Staff of Police Staff College, Representatives from Asia Foundation and the Participants of the Course on 'Training for the Master Instructors of Community Policing' (14 -17 January, 2013)

The Training on Community Policing focuses on crime and social disorder through the delivery of police services that include aspects of traditional law enforcement, as well as prevention of crime, problem-solving, community engagement, and partnerships. It balances reactive responses through service delivery with proactive problem-solving centered on the causes of crime and disorder. It requires police and citizens to join together as partners. Since Bangladesh is a densely populated country, police-people ratio is obviously higher, and this may be the prime cause why we are giving emphasis on community policing.

Police Staff College Bangladesh and Asia Foundation have jointly started a four-day training program from 14 January 2013 to 17 January 14, 2013 for Master Instructors who will train the field-level officers throughout the country. Mr. Md. Nazmul Haque PPM, Rector, Police Staff College Bangladesh, Mr. Md. Matiur Rahman Sheikh, Director Training, Police Staff College Bangladesh and Shanna Tova O'Reilly, Program Director, Asia Foundation, were present in the opening ceremony of the training program. Mr. Md. Nazmul Haque PPM has stressed on the need of more trained officers to expedite the community policing campaign to address the problems of common people.

Trafficking in Human Beings Investigation Course

Trafficking in Human Beings Investigation Course was held at Police Staff College Bangladesh from 07 April to 11th April 2013. The course was sponsored by Police Reform Program (PRP). Twenty-two officers of the rank of Inspector and Sub-Inspector took part in that course.

Gerard Smith, Technical Expert, Investigation and Operation, Police Reform Program, conducting a session of Trafficking in Human Beings Investigation Course

It is a well recognized fact that trafficking in Human Beings is a gross violation of human rights. Women and children become more vulnerable to trafficking in the context of a developing country like Bangladesh with a high density of population, unemployment, vulnerability to natural disaster and lack of natural resources. The increasing vulnerability of women and children is linked with the process of migration. And, in many cases, it ends up in trafficking.

There is no denying the fact that we are lagging far behind the international standard in terms of applying Investigation Techniques in Human Trafficking cases. Our conventional approach to investigation cannot match with organized criminal networks at local, regional and international levels. So, we have to apply modern investigation techniques to enter deep into the human trafficking cases.

Hospital Based Management of Mass Casualty Incidents Course

Two courses on "Hospital Based Management of Mass Casualty Incidents" were held at Police Staff College Bangladesh sponsored by US Department of State Anti-Terrorism Assistance Program and coordinated by Regional Security Office, US Embassy, Dhaka. Refresher Training on Community Policing for Community Policing Officers

Three Courses on "Refresher Training on Community Policing for Community Policing Officers" were held at Police Staff College Bangladesh on 27, 28 and 29 January 2013. These courses were organized by Police Reform Program (PRP), UNDP. A total number of 95 officers of the rank of Inspector and Sub-Inspector attended the courses.

Community policing focuses on crime and social disorder through the delivery of police services that include aspects of traditional law enforcement, as well as prevention, problem-solving, community engagement, and partnerships. It balances reactive responses to calls for service with proactive problem-solving centered on the causes of crime and disorder. It requires police and citizens to join together as partners. Since Bangladesh is a densely populated country, police-people ratio is obviously higher, and this may be the prime cause why we have to resort to community policing.

These refresher courses are intended to see whether the officers trained before are on the right track or not. They also try to solve the problem faced by the officers while working in the field level. The officers do brain-storming and put forward the outcome of their group discussion through group presentation.

Participants of on "Refresher Training on Community Policing for Community Policing Officers" are seen engaged in Group Discussion
